

Scientific Integrity v. Pinscreen Truth Challenge

Background

I, Dr. Iman Sadeghi, filed a verified complaint¹ on June 11, 2018, and the verified amended complaint² on October 5, 2018, in the Superior Court of California against Pinscreen Inc. et al.

I allege that Pinscreen, perpetrated Fraud and Deceit, Data Fabrication, and Academic Misconduct supported by conclusive evidence:

Pinscreen, through its CEO, Dr. Hao Li, has publicly alleged that some of the communications and evidence within the lawsuit are “fabricated.”^{3,4}

Truth Challenge

I appeal to my coauthors, collaborators, and colleagues; my fellow scientists, academics, researchers, and engineers; Computer Science, Computer Graphics, and SIGGRAPH communities; ACM, ETH Zürich, USC, USC ICT, and USC Viterbi School of Engineering; friends, family, and individuals who value #science, #integrity, and the #truth to demand and challenge⁵ Pinscreen and its affiliates to identify any communication or item of evidence within the verified amended complaint that they allege to be “fabricated”: #truthchallenge
